

Evening Session.—The Senate met at three o'clock, P. M., and was called to order by the Speaker.

The bill in relation to the sale of ardent spirits in Greenup county, and the amendment of Mr. M. P. Marshall, being the unfinished report of the Judiciary Committee, were taken up. The amendment was rejected, and the bill was then rejected.

A number of House bills on the clerk's table were taken up, read, and referred to appropriate committees.

A House bill to repeal the act of October 3, 1861, and to re-enact the act of May 23, 1861, in relation to the boundary lines of Warren and Metcalfe counties, passed.

A House bill to amend the act of school district No. 24, in Ballard county, passed.

A House bill for the benefit of the Presbyterian church in Bowling Green, passed.

A House bill concerning the duties of clerks in certifying standard instruments, passed—yeas 23, nays 2.

A House bill to change the time of the fall session court quarterly courts, passed.

A House bill to change the time of the Adair quarterly court, passed.

A House bill for the benefit of John Davis, a Justice of the Peace, of Shelby county, passed.

A House bill to amend the act to authorize the Carter county court to sell the poor-house lands, passed.

A House bill to authorize the Campbell county court to establish a new ferry opposite New Richmond, passed.

A House bill to change a voting place in Garrettsville precinct, in Christian county, passed.

The House resolutions returning thanks to Major-General Rosecrans and Buell, and the brave officers and soldiers under them, was taken up.

Mr. Wright moved that the portion of the resolution thanking General Buell be stricken out. He advocated, with zeal, and gave his reasons for his motion.

A lengthy discussion took place upon the motion to strike out, and the adoption of the resolutions, in which a number of Senators took part, and in which a wide range was taken in discussing which had military honors in general, and General Buell in particular.

Mr. Irwin moved that the resolutions be referred to the Military Committee. Negatives were a division of the question being called for the first resolution, thanking General Rosecrans and the officers and soldiers under them, was adopted.

The vote was then taken upon the adoption of the second resolution, thanking General Buell, and it was decided in the affirmative—yeas 16, nays 9.

A Senate bill to legalize the acts of B. D. Winstead, amended in the House. Amendment concurred in.

A bill to amend the charter of the city of Louisville. Amended and passed.

A bill to protect public property in the city of Frankfort. Amended and passed.

Mr. Miller offered an amendment. Rejected.

Mr. Whitaker—Mr. J. H. Hays—A bill for the rendition of deserters and absentees without leave. Ordered to be printed.

Same—A bill to amend the act to regulate civil proceedings. Passed.

Mr. Delaney—A House bill in relation to the office of State Librarian, with the opinion of the Senate, was taken up, and the House resolved to report to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Wright offered a resolution calling on the Military Committee to report in relation to arms, &c. Adopted.

And then the Senate adjourned, to meet at 9 o'clock to-morrow.

House.—The House met at 7 1/2 o'clock, P. M., and was called to order by the Speaker.

Mr. Burman—Select Committee—For the benefit of the Fayette county court, passed.

Mr. Hinton—Revised Statutes—Senate bill concerning runaway slaves, with a substitute therefor.

Mr. Underwood offered a House bill to provide for hiring out fugitive slaves, as a substitute for the Senate bill, and to change the time of holding the circuit courts. Laid upon the table.

House bill to abolish the June term of the Franklin circuit court, and to change the time of holding the circuit courts. Laid upon the table.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Special to the New York Herald.

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.

Colonel Winthrop, with a force of cavalry, left St. Paul on Friday on reconnaissance, and arrived at Winthrop last evening. He passed through Warrington, which was occupied by the rebels, and returned to St. Paul. Small parties of rebels were discovered at Licking and Elk Runs, and some dozen prisoners were taken.

Prisoners and deserters from the rebel army report no force at Culpeper.

Washington, March 1.

A despatch received from Gen. Grant has given much encouragement to the President and Secretary of War. They express the utmost confidence of favorable results at Vicksburg.

Gen. Grant asks only four or five days good weather to complete his arrangements, which are such that the military authorities here are convinced they will result, not merely in the capture of Vicksburg, but also the rebel army concentrated there.

Washington, March 1.

The rebels on the Rappahannock for two days past refused to hold communication with our troops under the usual flag of truce. Reports from the army of the Potomac respecting the condition of the rebels being much worse than at any previous time.

The Senate will convene in executive session after the adjournment of Congress, for the purpose, mainly, of considering the military nominations made by the President.

The report of the McDowell Court, in which the rebels were charged with firing on the evening of the 22d of August to meet Gen. Pope at Manassas Junction without order, and during which absence King's army was attacked by the rebels. The finding of the Court is approved by the President.

It is stated that the President will immediately call out six hundred thousand men under the conscription act.

It is said that Representative Garley, of Ohio, will be nominated for Governor of Arizona next Wednesday, and Richard McCormick Secretary.

New York, March 2.

The Times has the following private letter from Fort Ralston which makes the following statement: "Gen. Foster has been ordered to send thirty men from the 10th Connecticut regiment just before he went North, and made arrangements to return to the front."

They are charged with the duty of relieving the 10th of Charleston Harbor, and, landing there, marching through the enemy's pickets and from Philadelphia to New York, Boston, and New England.
